

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
FEDERAL BUREAU OF PRISONS
COMPENSATED PART-TIME/WORK-STUDY/VOLUNTEER LEGAL INTERN POSITIONS

It is the mission of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to protect society by confining offenders in the controlled environments of prisons and community-based facilities that are safe, humane, cost-efficient, and appropriately secure, and that provide work and other self-improvement opportunities to assist offenders in becoming law-abiding citizens.

POSITION Washington, D.C.
LOCATION(S):

QUALIFICATIONS: First-year (second semester), second- and third-year law students.

DATE POSITION(S) Fall Semester (September - December)
AVAILABLE: Spring Semester (January - May)

ASSIGNMENTS: Interns will work in one or more of the legal branches in the Office of General Counsel: Labor Law, Commercial Law, Real Estate and Environmental Law, Litigation, Discrimination Complaints and Ethics, Legislative and Correctional Issues, and Legal Administration (FOIA). Interns will have opportunities to handle projects from branches outside of their own in order to broaden their legal experience and knowledge. Interns will conduct extensive legal research on novel issues surrounding the Bureau of Prisons at both the State and Federal levels and draft legal memoranda, opinions and correspondence.
